

Indigenous Nursery Open Day

Frankston City Council

Come join the celebrations at Frankston Indigenous Nursery on its annual open day, April 6th 2024.

Enjoy a range of activities including plant sales and giveaways, nursery and propagation tours, coffee and a sausage sizzle. Local environmental groups, Wildlife careers and educators will also be providing educational resources.

Special guest presenter, ecologist Kelly Smith, will be speaking on her work with Koala conservation, and what we can do to help support these iconic Australian creatures.

When: Saturday 6th April 2024 9am – 1pm Where: Frankston Indigenous Nursery, McMannis Way, Seaford. Parking is limited, where possible, we encourage you to walk, ride or catch public transport.	All day: Children's 'paint a pot' workshop 10am: Kelly Smith – Koala conservation 11am: Nursery Tour 12pm: Propagation workshop
--	---

